

For a unique Holiday experience visit the Navy UDT-SEAL Museum!

There's more than just shopping on offer this Holiday Season. Anyone looking to escape the masses that storm the malls every holiday season can enjoy a day relaxing at the Navy UDT-SEAL Museum.

You and your party can enjoy the beautiful Florida weather on the Museum grounds as you stroll around Apollo training craft, a 'Huey' Helicopter, and inspect other unique Navy Special Warfare support boats and vehicles. Inside the Museum, you can enjoy a leisurely exploration of galleries that are rich with the histories of our brave servicemen. The galleries begin with the Underwater Demolition Teams of World War II, and continue on with the evolution of 60 years of Naval Special Warfare.

This visual experience, told with pictures, films, artifacts, and weaponry, is sure to impress both you and your guests.

While visiting the Museum, you can tick off your holiday gift list by shopping for UNIQUE CHRISTMAS PRESENTS at our friendly gift shop. The Gift Shop contains a collection of unique military and patriotic gift and souvenir items, as well as a selection of books and videos. Choose from an assorted array of clothing, gifts and collectibles inspired by the Navy UDT-SEALs. You can choose from:
